JENNIFER RIZZOTTI

TEAM PRESIDENT, CONNECTICUT SUN

Rizzotti enters her fourth season as the Team President for the Connecticut Sun. She is responsible for the overall basketball and business operations for the Mohegan Tribe-owned WNBA franchise that plays its home games in Mohegan Sun Arena. Jennifer Rizzotti had a storied career for the UConn Huskies from 1992 – 1996, where she helped lead UConn's 1995 team to a 35-0 season that ended in a Division 1 NCAA Women's Basketball Championship. A former All-American and the NCAA Regional Most Outstanding Player after her junior and senior seasons, in 1996 Rizzotti virtually swept the postseason awards as Big East Player of the Year, Big East Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the Associated Press Player of the Year, the Honda-Broderick Cup for Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year, the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award recipient, and the Wade Trophy winner. Rizzotti was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2013, joining fellow UConn legends, Coach Geno Auriemma (2006 inductee) and Rebecca Lobo (a 2010 inductee).

After playing eight seasons of professional basketball following college, which included two championship seasons with the Houston Comets (1999 & 2000), Rizzotti embarked on a coaching career that led her to the University of Hartford (UHart) where she spent 17 seasons. During her tenure with UHart, Rizzotti became America East Conference "Coach of the Year" in 2006, 2007 and 2010 and took the Hawks to five NCAA tournaments. Rizzotti also served as the head coach of the George Washington Women's basketball team for five years, beginning with with a 20-10 season in 2016-17 and a share of the A-10 regular season title. A trip to the NCAA Tournament would come in 2018 as well, after coaching George Washington to an A-10 Tournament title.

Rizzotti has also been an integral part of USA Women's Basketball. Most recently, she served as the Head Coach for the 2023 USA 3x3 Women's Pan American Team, taking home the gold in October, 2023. In 2011, she was named USA Basketball "Coach of the Year" and also served as an Assistant Coach for the gold medal winning 2021 Women's USA Olympic Team in Tokyo, Japan. In February 2024, Rizzotti was named the head coach of the 2024 USA 3x3 Women's National Team, which is set to defend the 2020 gold medal at the Olympic Games in Paris.

DARIUS TAYLOR

GENERAL MANAGER, CONNECTICUT SUN

Taylor enters his second season as the General Manager of the Connecticut Sun after a four-year stint with the Atlanta Dream, where he served in several roles throughout his time there as Assistant Coach, Interim Head Coach and Assistant General Manager. During Taylor's time at the Dream, he helped Atlanta secure the #1 pick in the 2022 WNBA Draft, selecting Rhyne Howard who earned WNBA Rookie of the Year. Prior to his time in Atlanta, Taylor served as an Assistant Coach under Dawn Staley, helping recruit the team that won South Carolina's first NCAA National Championship. Taylor brings a unique and varied skill set to his new position, having spent time across many different aspects of the basketball world- as a player, as a Manager of Community and Player programs in the NBA's Development League, and as an Assistant Director of Competitive Programs with USA Basketball.

MORGAN TUCK

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, CONNECTICUT SUN

Tuck assumes the role of Assistant General Manager after joining the Connecticut Sun in a front office role in May of 2021 as the Director of Franchise Development. Prior to that, Tuck had spent five years as a player in the WNBA, spending four seasons with the Connecticut Sun, after being drafted with the third overall pick by the franchise in 2016, and her last season with the Seattle Storm where she won a WNBA Championship in 2020. Tuck also played at the University of Connecticut from 2013-2016, leaving a four-time NCAA National Champion and with a 151-5 record, the most victories for college basketball players (including her teammates Moriah Jefferson and Breanna Stewart). She is also extremely familiar with the international basketball circuit, having been apart of four USA Basketball squads, mostly recently winning gold at the 2018 World Cup in Spain. Tuck's knowledge and experiences as a player for the Connecticut Sun will serve as a major strength as she takes a more active role in the basketball side of the Connecticut Sun front office.

STEPHANIE WHITE

HEAD COACH

RECORD: 64-44 EXPERIENCE: 3 YEARS SCHOOL: PURUDE UNIVERSITY

Stephanie White was named the head coach of the Connecticut Sun on November 21, 2022; becoming the franchise's sixth head coach. White, an Indiana native, brings a wealth of basketball knowledge to Connecticut, having enjoyed great success at every level of the game as a player, coach and television analyst.

In her first season in Connecticut in 2023, White guided the Sun to a 27-13 record, setting a new franchise record for victories in a single season. She was awarded for her success, being named the 2023 WNBA Coach of the Year and Associated Press Coach of the Year. White also was named WNBA Coach of the Month for May, after leading the team to a 4-1 record, marking the best start by a Sun head coach in their debut season. The Indiana native earned a spot as a head coach in the 2023 AT&T WNBA All-Star Game after guiding the Sun to the second-best record (12-4) in the league through June. At the All-Star Game in Las Vegas, White led Team Stewart to a 143-127 victory over Team Wilson. She also led the Sun to their seventh consecutive playoff appearance and fifth consecutive WNBA Semifinals.

White has a combined 16 seasons of experience as a player and coach in the WNBA. Prior to Connecticut, she spent two seasons as the head coach of the Indiana Fever (2015,2016), compiling an overall record of 37-31 and a playoff record of 6-6, including a trip to the 2015 WNBA Finals and a 2016 postseason berth. Prior to becoming a head coach for the Fever, White spent four seasons as an assistant coach (2011-2014), most notably helping lead Indiana to their first WNBA Championship in 2012.

Prior to her time with the Fever, White was an assistant coach with the Chicago Sky from 2007-2010. She has also served as an assistant coach at the collegiate level at Toledo (2005-2007), Kansas State (2004-2005) and Ball State (2003-2004). Her most recent coaching stint was from 2016-2021, where she spent five seasons has the Head Coach of Vanderbilt University women's basketball team. At Vanderbilt, White played a crucial role in rebuilding the young program she inherited, where she coached five players to the SEC All-Freshman team [2017 (2), 2018, 2019, 2020], a player to the 2019 Second-Team All-SEC and a player to the 2020 SEC All-Defensive Team.

A a player, White played five seasons in the WNBA. She was drafted with the 21st overall pick in the 1999 WNBA draft by the Charlotte Sting, where she played her rookie season in the league. In 2000, White was acquired by the Indiana Fever in the franchise's inaugural season. After four seasons with the Fever, she currently sits 19th in games played (112) and 14th in assists (225), steals (115) and three-point field goals made (92).

White also had a standout collegiate career, playing four seasons for Purdue from 1995-1999. During her senior campaign, she led the Boilermakers to the 1999 NCAA National Championship, while also picking up Big Ten Conference Player of the Year and Wade Trophy honors. At Purdue, White amassed 2,182 career points and was inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006.

Off the hardwood, White has served as a college basketball analyst for ESPN and the Big Ten Network since 2007. She has appeared both in-studio and on the sidelines as an analyst, most notably co-hosting the Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament for many seasons. White has also worked as an Indiana Pacers Reporter for FOX Sports Indiana.

BRIANN JANUARY

ASSISTANT COACH

EXPERIENCE: 1 YEAR SCHOOL: ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

Briann January enters her second season as the assistant coach for the Connecticut Sun after finishing her seasoned career in the WNBA during the 2022 season. The Spokane native was drafted sixth in the 2009 WNBA Draft by the Indiana Fever, where she would go on to be a WNBA Champion in 2012. She averaged 7.8 points, 1.7 rebounds, 3.4 assists and 1.0 steals over nine seasons in Indiana, two in Phoenix, two in Connecticut and one with Seattle.

January is widely heralded for her defensive abilities, as she was named an All-WNBA Defensive Team member seven times throughout her career. She also enters into the WNBA coaching ranks with a plethora of playoff experience, appearing in postseason contests 13 out of 14 seasons in the league. In her final season, January provided a crucial veteran presence off the bench, helping the Storm reach their fifth all-time in games played (68) and sixth all-time in assists (242) in WNBA postseason history.

As a member of the Sun from 2020-2021, January finished with a 36-18 record, starting in all but three regular season contests. During her final season in Connecticut, she averaged 7.0 points, 1.4 rebounds and 3.1 assists per game. January also helped propel the Sun to a No. 1 seed in the 2021 WNBA playoffs, after the team finished the regular season on a franchise record 14-game win streak.

During the WNBA offseason, January has held assistant coach positions at both Adelphi University and Arizona State University, her alma mater. January was with Adelphi in 2013-14, where she helped them to a 23-8 record and a NCAA Division II Regional Semifinal appearance. The Sun Devils' all-time leader in assists, January returned to Arizona State's sideline in April of 2017, serving as an assistant coach for one season. With January's assistance, Arizona State finished with a 22-13 overall record and boasted a No.7 seed in the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

January played four seasons for Arizona State University. She is a two-time AP honorable mention all-American, and also picked up the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year award twice during her collegiate career (2008, 2009). During her senior season, January set the program's single-season record for 3-point field goals (65). In November 2021, the university retired her jersey number, 20.

AUSTIN KELLY

ASSISTANT COACH

EXPERIENCE: 1 YEAR SCHOOL: DUKE UNIVERSITY

Austin Kelly enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Connecticut Sun. Prior to Connecticut, Kelly coached as an assistant and recruiting coordinator for two seasons with the University of Texas Arlington women's basketball team. During the 2022-23 season, UTA finished with a 14-17 overall record, including an eighth place finish in their first season in the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) at 8-10.

During the 2021-22 season, Kelly was instrumental to the team's success as the UTA won the Sun Belt Tournament Championship in its final year in the conference. The Lady Mavs finished with a 20-8 record and nearly upset No. 3 seed Iowa State on its home floor in the NCAA Tournament. Along with his recruiting duties, Kelly excelled at game planning offense for the Lady Mavs. He helped set up the SBC Player of the Year in Starr Jacobs, who went on to earn SBC Tournament MVP and became the first player in program history to average 20 points per game or more (21.0).

Prior to UTA, Kelly spent two seasons at Vanderbilt University (2019-20, 2020-21) as the Director of Recruiting Operations under then Head Coach Stephanie White. He joined the Vanderbilt staff in 2019 after serving at Georgia Tech as a graduate assistant with the women's basketball team (2018-19), where he also served as the assistant scouting coordinator. His duties included being the defensive scout coach for all opponents, opponent personnel breakdowns, assisting with on-court player development and serving as the liaison to strength and conditioning.

Kelly graduated from Duke in 2011 where he played football (wide receiver) and finished his career with 1,439 receiving yards and nine touchdowns. He also played a season of basketball at Georgia Southwestern (Division II).

ABI OLAJUWON

ASSISTANT COACH

EXPERIENCE: 1 YEAR SCHOOL: OKLAHOMA UNIVERSITY

Abi Olajuwon enters her second season as an assistant coach for the Connecticut Sun after nearly a decade of experience coaching at the collegiate level. Most recently, Olajuwon served as an assistant coach, recruiting coordinator and post coach for the Texas Christian University (TCU) Horned Frogs from 2018-2022. During her tenure there, the Horned Frogs amassed a 66-55 record. In addition, Olajuwon helped coach two players to All-Big 12 First Team honors (2018-19, 2019-20, 2020-21), and one player to All-Big 12 Honorable Mention (2021-22).

Prior to her time at TCU, Olajuwon served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the Eastern Michigan Eagles from 2016-2018 and as an assistant coach at California State University, Fullerton from 2015-2017.

After an impressive career at Oklahoma University, where she was a Big 12 Champion in 2007 and 2009 and went to two NCAA Women's Final Fours, Olajuwon was a third round draft pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft by the Chicago Sky. After her rookie season with the Sky, Olajuwon went on to play one season for the Tulsa Shock, and finished her playing career overseas with clubs in Romania, Hungary, Israel, Croatia, France, Brazil, China and Spain.

Olajuwon is the daughter of former NBA center and Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame member, Hakeem Olajuwon.
